International Association of Facilitators

Board of Directors role statement

Background

The International Association of Facilitators (IAF) is registered as a tax-exempt, not-for-profit Association with the Office of the Attorney General in the State of Minnesota in the United States of America.

The Association is governed by a volunteer global Board of Directors comprising the officers of the Association (Chair, Vice Chair, Secretary and Treasurer), strategic initiative directors and a regional director for each IAF region.

All Directors, except the Chair and Vice Chair, are elected by the IAF membership. The Chair and Vice Chair are selected by the Board of Directors from amongst the Board of Directors.

Responsibilities

All board members are responsible for:

- Ensuring the Association complies with its bylaws and all relevant legislation and regulations, according to its legal registration.
- Ensuring the Association pursues its non-profit objects as defined in its bylaws.
- Ensuring the Association uses its resources exclusively in pursuance of its non-profit objects.
- Contributing actively to the Board's role in giving firm strategic direction to the Association – setting overall policy, defining goals, setting targets and evaluating performance against agreed targets.
- Safeguarding the reputation, code of ethics and values of the Association.
- Ensuring the transparent, effective and efficient administration of the Association.
- Ensuring the financial stability of the Association.
- Protecting and managing the property of the Association and ensuring the proper investment of its funds.
- Appointing an Executive Director and any other paid staff or contractors and monitoring their performance.

Expectations

All board members are expected to participate fully and share in the strategic governance of the Association, on behalf of its membership and in service to the facilitation profession.

Board members are expected to:

- Engage with Association members, represent their needs and involve them in the life and activities of the Association.
- Attend and participate in the annual face-to-face board meeting.
- Participate in monthly board meetings including:<sup>1</sup>
  - preparing for meetings in advance by submitting and reviewing resolutions and financial, membership and status reports
  - providing input to topics requiring decisions
  - voting on resolutions.
- Assist in succession planning by:
  - identifying and encouraging qualified candidates to stand for election
  - reviewing and revising role statements
  - conducting transition sessions with incoming board members who will replace them at the end of their term and supporting the new board member for up to 3 months.
- Use their specific skills, knowledge and experience to help the Board reach sound decisions which may involve:
  - scrutinising board papers
  - leading both exploratory and consensus-building discussions
  - strategising around key issues
  - providing guidance and leadership for initiatives
  - working on issues for which the Director has special expertise.

Working arrangements

The Board:

- meets face-to-face at least once a year, usually in January, and virtually each month for around 90 minutes<sup>2</sup>
- uses a range of virtual tools to communicate between meetings, consider and vote on resolutions out-of-session and project manage initiatives.

A policies and procedures manual is available to all board members.

The IAF Office supports the operation of the Board by providing administrative, financial and membership services.

<sup>1</sup> Under Bylaw 4.09 Participation, Directors are expected to participate in at least 75% of the board meetings each year. Failure to meet the participation requirement is considered an automatic voluntary resignation from the Board.

<sup>2</sup> Under Bylaw 4.07 Meetings, the Board is required to meet at least four times a year and at least one meeting is to be held face-to-face. A board meeting schedule is developed at the beginning of each calendar year.
