Role statement<sup>1</sup>

Regional Director

Responsibilities

In addition to their responsibilities as a board member, Regional Directors are responsible for communicating, promoting and supporting the work of the IAF in his or her region.

There is a Regional Director for each geographic region:

- Africa
- Asia
- Canada
- Europe and the Middle East
- Latin America and the Caribbean
- Oceania
- United States of America.

The Regional Director for the United States of America is also responsible for serving as the President of the IAF US Foundation.

Expectations

All Regional Directors are expected to:

- Be responsive in a timely fashion to regional, chapter and membership needs.
- Be a champion for global initiatives, such as the Facilitation Impact Awards and International Facilitation Week.
- Uphold the values, policies and strategies of the IAF in all activities.
- Keep the Board informed of financial and reputational concerns in a timely manner so that intervention, if needed, can be taken.
- Ensure that there is appropriate succession to the Regional Director's role before the expiry of the term.

Duties

Key duties of Regional Directors are to:

Board

- Participate in all board meetings.
- Contribute to and support, as necessary and appropriate, all global board policies and operational discussions between board meetings providing a regional perspective as appropriate.

<sup>1</sup> This statement should be read in conjunction with the Board of Directors role statement.

- Participate in (directly or indirectly) Board working groups, task forces and/or committees as agreed to from time to time, especially ones whose work will have a direct impact on regional issues.
- Manage the region's budget.

Administration

- Prepare and submit regular reports to the Board on the region's activities.
- Provide budget requirements to the Treasurer as requested.
- Bring to the Board's attention issues that may affect other regions.
- Establish and maintain means of communications with the region's members (e.g. newsletters, web updates, etc.).

Conferences

- Establish and support conference organising team and related activities.
  - Ensure volunteers have the capacity to deliver a regional conference and follow global policies and guidelines, particularly all financial matters.
  - Act as the liaison and communication link between the conference organising team and the Board via the Director of Conferences and Events.
  - Keep the Board advised and updated of the regional conference status and any concerns. Ask for help as needed.
  - Share relevant documents from the IAF global system as appropriate.
  - Prepare a final conference report within 60 days after the conference is completed.

Chapters and membership

- Keep in touch and consult with the Director of Membership and Chapters as required to resolve issues or concerns in a consistent way.
  - Review and respond to membership inquiries in a timely manner, following the guidelines established by the Board, and/or as recommended by the Director of Membership and Chapters.
  - Keep a big picture view of the region's membership fluctuations.
- Establish and maintain a mechanism by which the region's membership can contact and communicate with the Regional Director.
- Establish and maintain a regional team to:
  - Inspire and engage IAF members to volunteer for roles about which they are passionate, and which need to be undertaken to promote the power of facilitation within the region.
  - Maintain regular contact with members in the region and in alignment with the IAF's global policies and strategies (e.g. webpages, publishing regular communications, welcoming new and renewing members, responding to inquiries, etc.).
  - Organise and deliver conferences and/or other professional development events in the region and in alignment with the IAF's global policies and strategies.
  - Expand the regional membership and its involvement with the IAF (e.g. initiating local groups and ultimately chapters of IAF members, and connecting members with each other).

- Provide guidance and support to Chapter Leads for chapter activities.

If no regional team is established, the Regional Director will be expected to complete the above tasks.

International Association of Facilitators

Board of Directors role statement

Background

The International Association of Facilitators (IAF) is registered as a tax-exempt, not-for-profit Association with the Office of the Attorney General in the State of Minnesota in the United States of America.

The Association is governed by a volunteer global Board of Directors comprising the officers of the Association (Chair, Vice Chair, Secretary and Treasurer), strategic initiative directors and a regional director for each IAF region.

All Directors, except the Chair and Vice Chair, are elected by the IAF membership. The Chair and Vice Chair are selected by the Board of Directors from amongst the Board of Directors.

Responsibilities

All board members are responsible for:

- Ensuring the Association complies with its bylaws and all relevant legislation and regulations, according to its legal registration.
- Ensuring the Association pursues its non-profit objects as defined in its bylaws.
- Ensuring the Association uses its resources exclusively in pursuance of its non-profit objects.
- Contributing actively to the Board's role in giving firm strategic direction to the Association – setting overall policy, defining goals, setting targets and evaluating performance against agreed targets.
- Safeguarding the reputation, code of ethics and values of the Association.
- Ensuring the transparent, effective and efficient administration of the Association.
- Ensuring the financial stability of the Association.
- Protecting and managing the property of the Association and ensuring the proper investment of its funds.
- Appointing an Executive Director and any other paid staff or contractors and monitoring their performance.

Expectations

All board members are expected to participate fully and share in the strategic governance of the Association, on behalf of its membership and in service to the facilitation profession.

Board members are expected to:

- Engage with Association members, represent their needs and involve them in the life and activities of the Association.
- Attend and participate in the annual face-to-face board meeting.
- Participate in monthly board meetings including:<sup>1</sup>
  - preparing for meetings in advance by submitting and reviewing resolutions and financial, membership and status reports
  - providing input to topics requiring decisions
  - voting on resolutions.
- Assist in succession planning by:
  - identifying and encouraging qualified candidates to stand for election
  - reviewing and revising role statements
  - conducting transition sessions with incoming board members who will replace them at the end of their term and supporting the new board member for up to 3 months.
- Use their specific skills, knowledge and experience to help the Board reach sound decisions which may involve:
  - scrutinising board papers
  - leading both exploratory and consensus-building discussions
  - strategising around key issues
  - providing guidance and leadership for initiatives
  - working on issues for which the Director has special expertise.

Working arrangements

The Board:

- meets face-to-face at least once a year, usually in January, and virtually each month for around 90 minutes<sup>2</sup>
- uses a range of virtual tools to communicate between meetings, consider and vote on resolutions out-of-session and project manage initiatives.

A policies and procedures manual is available to all board members.

The IAF Office supports the operation of the Board by providing administrative, financial and membership services.

<sup>1</sup> Under Bylaw 4.09 Participation, Directors are expected to participate in at least 75% of the board meetings each year. Failure to meet the participation requirement is considered an automatic voluntary resignation from the Board.

<sup>2</sup> Under Bylaw 4.07 Meetings, the Board is required to meet at least four times a year and at least one meeting is to be held face-to-face. A board meeting schedule is developed at the beginning of each calendar year.
